ABOUT PALMER GOLD COAST

Carved out of 65 hectares of native woodlands, with fairways lined by towering gum trees, this unique layout is unlike any resort course on the Gold Coast. Possessing maturity well beyond its years, Palmer Gold Coast has rapidly developed a reputation as one of Queensland's best-loved resort courses.

Consistently ranked in the top 30 resort courses in the country, Palmer Gold Coast is a 6078 meter, 18 hole, Par 71 championship golf course (Aust Course Rating 72), designed by the Marsh/Watson team.

The rolling fairways, manicured greens, and towering eucalyptus are strikingly beautiful and blend harmoniously with the surrounding residential development. A natural water course featuring lakes, ponds, creeks and native wildlife completes a rare golf course environment.

ABOUT PALMER COLONIAL

Palmer Colonial was originally built by Nara Australia Pty Ltd. In 1992 the course opened as Paradise Springs Golf Course. Designed by Mitsuaki Kobayashi, boasting of beautifully groomed fairways and meticulously manicured greens. Palmer Colonial is widely regarded as being in the best condition on the Gold Coast.

The distinguished feature of the course is the clubhouse, with its Colonial, Queenslander design. Designed by Alan Griffith Architects, it continues to be the focus of the venue.

The 6,424 metre, Par 72, championship resort layout, meanders its way through 39 hectares of towering eucalyptus, picturesque lakes and serene waterways. Flowering native and exotic trees and plants abound, while ornate bridges cross watercourses in which luxuriant lillies jostle for space.
